

Environmental policy

Sylex, s.r.o., which main activities are design, production and assembly of components for optic and metallic networks as well as design, production and assembly of products, production and testing devices in the area of electronics, audiotechnique and optoelectronics commits in compliance with the ISO 14 001 norm to:

1. Improving constantly the attitude of the company to the environment protection and the system of environmental management.
2. Develop, produce and launch environmentally friendly products.
3. Following consistently applicable valid environmental legal regulations and other requirements in the environmental protection sphere.
4. Avoiding excessive generating of waste.
5. Increasing environmental awareness of employees and taking part in the system environmental protection management by mutual cooperation with the suppliers.
6. Informing employees, customers, relevant state administration authorities and public to what extend the adopted environmental principles are being followed.

All the employees are obliged to follow these principles and respect the environmental policy of Sylex, s.r.o. in full extend.

Dana Synaková
General Manager